

SHOOTING SCRIPTS – TODAY

2026-05-06 – Victor / VIP General Contractor – Vista, CA

TODAY's shoot is at Victor's bathroom remodel job site in Vista. Tony's testimonial cuts (1, 2, 3, 4, 10) get shot SEPARATELY – Tony at World Pools Inc has actual measurable results, Victor just signed with us so no testimonial possible yet.

Audience for ALL ads (per Fathom strategy lock): high-ticket home service contractors in San Diego County (GCs, HVAC, roofers, remodels, plumbing, hardscape, pools). We don't single out one trade in copy.

TWO SHOTS, TWO PURPOSES

Shoot	When	Where	Who	Cuts
A – Today (May 6)	NOW	Victor's bathroom remodel, Vista CA	Peter (talent) + Victor (b-roll + intro)	5, 6, 7, 8, 9, V (Victor intro)
B – Tony shoot	This week, date TBD	Tony's pool site (or wherever)	Peter + Tony	1, 2, 3, 4, 10

Today we shoot 6 cuts + b-roll. Tony shoot adds the other 5 testimonial cuts later.

Editor combines both shoots into the 6 final ads at launch.

TODAY'S CUTS (in order)

PRE-SHOOT CHECKLIST (Dani, before leaving)

- ☐ Victor confirmed availability + address pinned in Slack
 - ☐ Victor signed photo/video release
 - ☐ Site is at a stage with VISIBLE WORK (drilling, tile, cabinet install — not just empty drywall)
 - ☐ Camera, gimbal, lavs, headphones, hard hats, SD cards
 - ☐ Phone fully charged (Peter's, for fact-check moments — Cut 7 references Tony's lead numbers)
 - ☐ Drive folder created: `/SCALE/Ads/2026-05-06-Victor-Vista/raw/`

CUT V — "Victor Intro" (NEW — replaces a testimonial we can't shoot yet)

Format: Victor solo direct-to-lens Length goal: 10-15s Talent: Victor only Setup: Active site, hard hat, finished surface or active work behind. Phone-shot is fine. Track: A — lead form Bible angle: Identity + Founder Confession (MS18, MS50)

Why this cut exists today

Victor is brand new. No results to claim. So instead of a testimonial, we shoot an HONEST intro: "I'm Victor, this is my work, I just started with Scale SD." It's documentation of day 1. Honest framing. Two months from now this becomes the "before" cut to pair against his actual results. Today it just establishes him as a real local contractor we work with.

What Victor says (his own words, no script)

Peter prompts off-camera: "Just tell the camera who you are, what you do, and that you just started with us. Don't sell anything. Just be honest."

Target words: - "I'm Victor." - "I'm a general contractor in Vista." - "Bathroom remodels, kitchens, water damage, tile, cabinets — I do real residential work." - "I just signed with Scale SD this week. We'll see what happens."

That's it. 10-15 seconds. No claims. No results. Honest.

Why this is gold for the ad library

- Pairs perfectly with Cut 7 (Peter's confession): "Behind me is Victor. Just signed. Six weeks from now I'll show you what changed."
- Pairs with Tony's testimonial when it lands: Victor (just starting) + Tony (results) = before-and-after across two clients in the same ad.
- Honest tone is rare in this niche — every other ad fakes results. We don't.

Takes target

3 takes. No more. Don't burn Victor's energy here.

CUT 5 — "5-Second Anchor"

Format: Peter solo direct-to-lens (mirrors Spark's 140-day "It's time for a large ticket. Welcome." 5s teaser) Length goal: 5s exactly Talent: Peter only Setup: Victor's job site behind. Hard hat. Direct to lens. Track: A — lead form Bible angle: Pattern Interrupt (MS5)

Spoken (verbatim, 11 words)

"San Diego contractors. Your work isn't the problem. Your system is."

Body overlay (added in post)

"Real ads. Real local homeowners. 90 exclusive leads in 12 weeks, yours alone. DM us 'SCALE'."

Coaching

- 5 seconds, 11 words. Don't add anything.
- Don't smile. Direct lens. Confident. Half-step toward camera.

Takes target

5-7 takes. Pick cleanest in edit.

CUT 6 — "Contractors, Summer Window"

Format: Peter solo, walking through the bathroom remodel Length goal: 15s Talent: Peter only Setup: Walk through Victor's finished bathroom or active install area. Movement. Track: A — lead form Bible angle: Urgency + Hyper-Local Identity (MS21, MS19)

Spoken

"San Diego contractors. Summer is 90 days. Are you booked or are you winging it? Every homeowner about to drop big money on a remodel, a pool, an HVAC install — they're on Instagram right now. If they're not seeing your work, they're seeing your competitor's."

Body overlay

-  Hyper-local San Diego homeowners
-  Real job sites, no stock
-  90 exclusive leads in 12 weeks
- CTA: "Comment 'SCALE'."

Coaching

- Walk while talking. Movement keeps eyes on the screen.
- Pace: slow on the question, faster on the urgency, slow on the closing.

Takes target

3 takes.

CUT 7 — "Burned Bob Confession"

Format: Peter solo, vulnerable open Length goal: 30-45s Talent: Peter only Setup: Victor's site behind (active work or finished surface). No smile. Conversational pace.

Track: B — video LP Bible angle: Mechanism + Founder Confession (MS3, MS6, MS40, MS47)

Spoken (Register C, polished)

"Real talk. If you're a San Diego contractor and you've already paid an agency $2k a month for six months and got dashboards full of clicks and zero jobs booked, this is for you.

Look. You're not crazy. The reason it didn't work isn't ads. It's that the agency never came to your job site. Stock-template campaigns from a national library can't sell your work because they don't show your work.

Behind me right now is Victor. VIP General Contractor. Vista, CA. He just signed with us. We're going to film his work for the next 12 weeks and run it as ads. The contractor we already have hard numbers for is Tony at World Pools. He's locked up his summer. That's where Victor's headed.

90 exclusive leads in 12 weeks. If we don't hit it, you don't pay."

Why this language

- Names Victor as visible (he's behind Peter on Victor's actual site — credible)
- Honest about Victor: "just signed" — no fake results
- References Tony as the proof — Tony has results, Victor will get them
- Sets up future testimonial without overclaiming today

B-roll cuts to insert (from today)

- Victor working a tile install
- Hands on cabinet detail

- Finished bathroom from Victor's prior work
- Peter walking up to Victor's site

CTA

"If you've been burned before, DM us 'SCALE'. We'll come to your site this week. No pitch."

Coaching

- Slow pace. Confessional, not energetic.
- The vulnerability + transparency IS the hook. Don't overcorrect to "salesman."
- Look at lens for "Real talk." Look slightly off-axis for the longer pain section. Back to lens for the offer.

Takes target

3 takes.

CUT 8 — "Job Site Walkthrough"

Format: Peter walks Victor's site, narrates what's being built (Cesar's Template D)

Length goal: 30-45s Talent: Peter + camera follows, brief Victor cameo Setup: Start at front of site. Walk through. End at Victor briefly. Track: A — lead form Bible angle: Mechanism + Education (MS3, MS27)

What Peter does (unscripted, just walk and talk)

1. At the front of the site: "Hey, we're at a job site in Vista with one of our newest clients, Victor at VIP General Contractor. Let me show you what we're doing today."
2. Walk to active work: describe what's being built — "Victor's doing a full bathroom remodel here, tile, cabinets, the whole thing" — point at materials.
3. Walk to a finished detail (clean tile, completed install): show quality. Casual aside. ("This is sick" / "His finish work is clean" — natural.)
4. Land at Victor briefly: "This is Victor. He just signed with us this week. We're going to film his work for the next 12 weeks and put it in front of San Diego homeowners. He does the work. We do the marketing."
5. Tag to camera: "If you're a contractor in San Diego — any high-ticket trade — and you want this kind of partnership for your business, link's below."

Coaching

- This is unscripted. Just walk and talk.
- Casual profanity OK if natural ("this is sick," "clean as hell").
- Don't sell. Show.
- Camera (Dani) follows on gimbal. Smooth movement.

Takes target

One full pass + retake the closing tag standalone.

CUT 9 – "Hook Bank" (7 quick hooks)

Format: Peter solo, clean BG (no movement) Length goal: 5-7 separate 3-5 second clips Talent: Peter only Setup: Clean wall, finished bathroom wall, or non-distracting background. Track: Used across all Tracks (swap onto Cuts 5 + 6 in edit)

Deliver each as its own take

H00K 1: "If you're a high-ticket contractor in San Diego and you want a fully booked summer, watch this."

H00K 2: "Most contractors are buying leads that 4 other guys already called."

H00K 3: "Your phone should be ringing every day. If it's not, this is why."

H00K 4: "Slow season doesn't exist for the contractors using this."

H00K 5: "GCs, HVAC, roofers, pools, plumbing, hardscape – if you do high-ticket work in San Diego, this is for you."

H00K 6: "San Diego contractors. There's a guy a mile from you booking jobs you should have. The difference isn't talent."

H00K 7: "Want a fully booked summer? Stop hustling for referrals. Start advertising in front of real buyers."

Coaching

- Each hook = 1 take. Direct delivery. No "let me try again" mid-take.
- 2 takes per hook minimum (14 total).

Takes target

14 total (2 per hook).

B-ROLL CHECKLIST (Victor's site today)

Most are 5-10 second clips. Dani: prioritize the first 7.

- ☐ Wide shot of full job site, daytime
 - ☐ Bathroom remodel hero shot (finished tile, cabinets, fixtures)
 - ☐ Hands working — drilling, painting, tiling, mudding
 - ☐ Tools laid out
 - ☐ Cabinet detail close-up
 - ☐ Tile detail close-up
 - ☐ Victor walking onto / through the site
 - ☐ Peter's hand on phone with texts/leads visible (for Cut 7 fact-check)
 - ☐ VIP General Contractor truck or branded vehicle if available
 - ☐ License #1062670 visible if on truck or signage
 - ☐ Slow pan across materials
 - ☐ Victor giving instructions to a crew member (action shot, no audio)
 - ☐ Drywall / paint / finish work in progress
